

St. Paul was apprenticed (“I received . . .”) and was now apprenticing (“what I also handed on to you . . .”). Thank you, Lord, for those mentors who apprenticed and continue to apprentice me as I struggle to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to live the gospel. Help me in turn, Lord, to apprentice my participants, to hand unto them that which I have received so that they may also become your disciples and live out the Good News of the kingdom of God. Amen.

Prayer from The Catechist’s Toolbox by Joe Paprocki.

